MANY families gather around the family board on New Year's Day, and like this good, old-fashioned idea of entertaining with dinner. The New Year's dinner should be just as elaborate as you can afford. This is a good time to pay off those social obligations that come at this season of the year.

Tomato Butter

Place in saucepan
one cup of chili sauce,
one-half cup of oil,
one cup of onions, chopped fine,
one green pepper, chopped fine,
Three-quarters cup of boiling water.
Cook slowly for ten minutes and serve warm with the lobster.
Cut sliced halibut in pieces the width of two fingers, season, roll in flour, then dip in beaten egg and milk and roll again in fine bread crumbs. Fry a golden brown. Serve four or five with the fillets and a spoonful of hollandaise sauce.

Barbecue Sauce
Place in saucepan:
Three-quarters pound of salt pork, chopped fine,
one cup of vinegar,
one-half cup of onions, chopped fine,
one-half cup of oil,
one-half cup of poultry seasoning,
one teaspoon of thyme,
Two tablespoons of salt,
Two tablespoons of black pepper,
Two tablespoons of paprika,
Two quarts of cold water.
Simmer slowly and use a large basting spoon of this sauce to pour over the turkey.
Dredge the turkey with flour each time just before basting with the barbecue sauce.
An oyster filling may be placed in the turkey, if desired.

Shrimp Cocktail
Allow five medium-size shrimp for each service. To prepare the sauce place in mixing bowl:
one-half cup of French dressing,
one cup of chili sauce,
one-quarter cup of grated horseradish,
Juice of one lemon,
Two tablespoons of vinegar,
one green pepper, minced fine,
one onion, grated,
one-half cup of catsup.
This will make twelve ample portions.
The sucking pig may be stuffed with pork krait, mashed potatoes or the usual turkey filling.
Have the butcher prepare the pig and then wash in plenty of water, wipe dry and rub the inside with clove of garlic. Place in the filling, score the skin lightly, making checker blocks, rub well with plenty of lard and dust with flour, place in hot oven until the skin commences to brown, then reduce heat to slow oven and baste every fifteen minutes with a sauce prepared for the barbecue of turkey, or just plain boiling water. Roast the pig three and one-half hours for fourteen to sixteen pounds.
If you do not know how to score the pig, have the butcher show you.

Angel Sauce
Place in mixing bowl:
one and one-half cups of powdered sugar,
Yolks of two eggs,
Cream well and then add:
Four tablespoons of boiling water,
Two tablespoons of vanilla,
One teaspoon of rose extract, and a portion of cakeolina cream, made with the yolks of two eggs and one-half glass apple jelly.
Whip until mixture forms thick meringue.

Lobster Salad
Open six large cans of lobster, and turn at once into china dish, stand in cool place for thirty minutes, now pour over the lobster:
One-half cup of mayonnaise dressing,
one-quarter cup of lemon juice,
Three-quarters cup of capers.
Toss the lobster in this dressing to blend and place at once on ice to chill.
Prepare two stalks of crisp white celery, cut out in half-inch pieces. Mince very fine two green peppers. Prepare individual nests of crisp lettuce. Shred fine the well-cleaned outside green leaves of lettuce, and put this finely shredded lettuce in the bottom of the prepared crisp nests of lettuce. Now add the prepared celery and green pepper to the prepared lobster, mix carefully to blend, dress with mayonnaise dressing, and garnish with shreds of celery and green pepper. A few egg-salads dipped in paprika and a few egg-salads dipped in paprika and a few egg-salads dipped in paprika will complete the luncheon.

MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS
My dear Mrs. Wilson—Please give me recipe for making pound cake, layer and loaf cakes. I am a good baker of bread and pies, but cannot get it right with the cakes, they either are too short or they fall in the middle. Please let me know what the trouble is. I do not know if it is me or the oven.
MRS. M. H.

Dear Mrs. Wilson—Will you kindly tell me how to make lobster salad, using the canned lobster, and what to serve with it for a buffet luncheon. I have many cans of lobster will be required for serving about twelve persons?

Adventures With a Purse
HELEN has been invited to a New Year's party which is to be formal, and that means an evening dress. So few things these days are strictly formal that she has not had an evening dress for some time. The party being so close onto the heels of Christmas and the depleted pocketbook thereof, she asked me if I had seen any nice looking ones which were not too expensive. So I began adventuring and found one which I think is very dainty. It is fashioned of a deep pink, almost coral, of heavy georgette. The skirt is wide and falls in soft, graceful folds. About the waist is a coral pink velvet girdle which fastens on the side with a rosette. A really good-looking little frock and only $25.

And speaking of dresses, have you seen any of the new spring roshanara crepes? They are simply stunning, and any number of new designs and patterns which fairly dazzle one. One of the shops in town has an awfully smart frock made of a roshanara crepe, the Persian colorings of a new design blending with navy blue crepe in a hand perhaps ten inches about the bottom of the skirt. Lovely, heavy silk, rich colorings, made with wide sleeves coming to the wrist. Where the design joins the blue there is a narrow fluting of the blue crepe. The very thing for almost any occasion, somber enough for an office and yet the very thing for the afternoon bridge or the theatre and the price, $39.50, is really remarkable.

Things You'll Love to Make

A Screen Can Be Made to Serve Two Purposes

You can make your screen serve two purposes. Fasten a pole to each of the end sections. To the middle section fasten a flat strip of wood. Into this strip hammer some long nails, far enough apart to allow spoons of cotton to be passed over them. Fit a triangular shelf at the bottom between the first two sections. You can use the shelf for sewing materials and the hangers for unfinished garments. This sewing screen will be found very useful in homes where there is not a special sewing room.

City Clerk Hit by Motor

Joseph A. McNamee in Serious Condition at Atlantic City Hospital

Atlantic City, Dec. 28.—City Clerk Joseph A. McNamee is in a serious condition at the City Hospital as the result of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile at New York and Atlantic avenues last night. McNamee, who is more than sixty years, was crossing Atlantic avenue and stepped aside to permit a car to pass. In the heavy fog he did not see a machine immediately behind it, nor did George Sheveller, the driver, see McNamee in time to avert striking him. The injured man was rushed to the City Hospital, where he is suffering from a possible fracture of the skull and numerous other injuries. McNamee was the victim of a paralytic stroke several years ago.
